CONFERENCE

The importance of ensuring a smooth travel experience for conference attendees should never be underestimated. When it comes to catering for faculty members (conference committee members, the president, speakers as well as other VIP attendees), this task takes on an entirely new dimension. In this article, we examine three reasons why it pays off for an association to use a specialized conference travel agency to accommodate the needs of VIP executives.

GROUP TRAVEL & MICE

The term "MICE" in the context of travel is an acronym for meetings, incentives, conferences and exhibitions. The MICE market refers to a specialized niche of group tourism dedicated to planning, booking, and facilitating conferences, seminars and other events which is a big moneymaker in the travel industry.

However, using MICE to refer to this industry is useful in that it encompasses every component of this particular travel market. Whether you're looking to organize a group outing for your company's employees (incentive) or you want to organize a big event focused on the latest innovations in your field (conference) MICE travel agents can help you book your itinerary.
